Ladies Welcome at all meetings

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK . . .

Greetings Nobles and ladies

Spring is teasing us this year, with the temperature fluctuating between winter and spring. Our March meeting was winter like, especially driving home, but it didn't deter us from enjoying our St. Patrick's Day festivities. Those that dressed up for the occasion made for a great evening which was enjoyed by all. Recipients of the prizes were: best dressed – Brenda Reeves. Goofiest went to Valerie Smith and a prize donated by our Ambassador; Noble Paul Johnson was given for honorable mention to Dave Earle.

Chairman for the evening was Dave Earle who introduced our guest speaker, Sarah Krieger who gave us an enlightening and abbreviated talk on Alzheimer's. What it is and what the symptoms are. At this time there is no cure for it, if there ever will be. She also related where and how to go to deal with it.

A wonderful meal was prepared and served by the ladies of the Legion, who also had the tables decorated in green. A fun filled evening was enjoyed by all.

As we approach the second quarter of the year our Snowbirds will be returning and we hope they had a wonderful and enjoyable winter in the south.

Looking forward to seeing one and all at our April meeting.

Eric

"FROM THE DESK OF YOUR AMBASSADOR"

Nobles and Ladies,

My congratulations to all the prize winners at our St. Patrick's Day Meeting. What may seem silly at the time sure adds to the fun and enthusiasm everyone generated.

Our Guest speaker Sarah Krieger sure gave us something to think about. I will always remember trying to draw an elephant and how it relates to those suffering from Dementia and Alzheimer's.

I look forward to our April meeting and the return of our snowbird members.

Cordially,
R. Paul Johnson

The Chaplain's Corner

Nobles:

As Easter approaches I hope you are looking forward to celebrating the significance of it's meaning for you and your family. This month ushers in the spring season at last with the revitalization of the earth as we await the budding of the trees and the first sign of flowers coming up.

Are you ready to be rejuvenated as we look forward to the spring ceremonial and the work that lies ahead for Algonquin Shrine Club.

As we consider the favours already received from the GAOTU we as a club along with our Ladies should be thankful for the blessings we can give to others.

Thanks to the GAOTU for encouraging and helping us in giving hope to those in need.

Noble Barry

The 'Red Book' is currently at the printers for an extensive revision.

Noble Dave Earle thanked Sarah Krieger who is from the North Hastings Alzimers Society, for discussing the issues of an Alzimer patient. Sarah is the volunteer co ordinator, educational support person for the Society in the Bancroft area. All the Nobles and their Ladies found Sarahs talk, informative and the interactive part was very enlightening. Many thanks for speaking to us and sharing your knowledge.

*Many Nobles and their Ladies were dressed for the special occasion for St. Patricks Day and we all enjoyed the festivities.
