FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK . . .

Greetings Nobles and Ladies.

I would like to thank all Nobles and Ladies that attended our April Dinner meeting. We had a large group in attendance. It was nice to see everyone as Lady Laura and I had just returned from a few weeks in Florida.

We enjoyed a presentation from Jennifer Semach who runs Walkabout Farm. Walkabout Farm is a fully inclusive therapeutic riding, equine assisted learning and youth outreach initiative designated for children and adults with unique considerations, socioeconomic isolation, mental health concerns and those who are abled differently.

Our Golf Tournament is 13th July this year. Please help support our club by putting in a team or showing up for the dinner.

Our first parade this year is Apsley on 1st July, please plan to attend. The parade starts at 4pm and is over quickly. Lets put on a good show.

Looking forward to seeing all at our next dinner meeting.

Noble David Mount and Lady Laura

"FROM THE DESK OF YOUR AMBASSADOR"

I bring you greetings from our ILLUSTRIOUS POTENTATE JOHN DOMONKOS

Spring is finally here which means nature will be renewing all the flowers and greenery, however it also means that we will get a new crop of mosquitoes and black flies, keep your bug spray handy.

May 11th our SPECIAL LADIES dinner was held at headquarters, and was a great success.

Notices of May: Golf tournament – Bear Creek

We will now be seeing more of our snow birds back at our meetings and that will make our dinners larger and more exciting.

AMBASSADOR NOBLE WAYNE WIGGINS
